RE: State Route 60 Flood Study, Vermilion Township

Dear Stakeholder,

Erie County, in partnership with Richland Engineering, Erie County Emergency Management Agency, and Erie County Engineer's Office, has been evaluating existing conditions regarding flooding that has occurred in the State Route 60 study area from Darrow Road to Mason Road including Trinter Ditch and Edson Creek in Vermilion Township.

The purpose of the project has been to evaluate existing conditions in the study area and determine any potential mitigation.

An open house public meetings to provide an update on the study findings will be held on January 13, 2026 from 5:30 pm to 7:30 pm at the Vermilion Township Garage Hall at 11607 Stanley Road, Vermilion 44089. A general overview presentation will be held at 6:00 pm to review the study information. Exhibits will be displayed and comments will be collected for the final published study.

Stakeholder input is an important part of the project development process and provides valuable feedback that helps guide decision-making throughout all phases of project development. We ask that you review the presentation and project materials and provide your feedback. Comments regarding the project may be submitted on the County website, through mail, email, or by phone to the contact provided below.

Individuals who require special accommodations under the Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA) or persons who require translation services or sign language interpreters should contact ERPC by January 9th, 2026. Public participation is solicited without regard to race, color, sex, age, national origin, or disability.

To provide comment regarding the project, or request special accommodations, please contact:
